

On the fourth Sunday of the month,
the congregations of First Presbyterian and First United Presbyterian Churches will be worshipping together.

Many years ago, our churches shared a history as one congregation before our ties were broken by racism and sin.

Years later, we rejoice that we can participate in Christ's ministry of reconciliation as we bear witness to God's faithfulness and grace.

Confession

Call to Confession

The Reverend Anna Dickson

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, sometimes your presence feels more like hiddenness to us. We do not have eyes to see it. We do not have the courage to trust it. We tend to place our confidence in our feelings more readily than we do in your faithfulness.

Forgive us, O God.

Remind us again that your steadfast love for us was made plain in Jesus Christ, and that it doesn't falter or change. Give us the courage to cling to that love, even when we cannot see it or sense it. And make us a people committed to sharing that love with one another, that we might draw strength from it together.

Assurance of Pardon

One: Friends, believe the good news.

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Response to Pardon (Hymn No. 581)

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

Sacrament of Baptism

Sacrament of Baptism

Thomas Livio Parolin

*Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Children age 3 through first grade may leave for First Church. They will return to the sanctuary during the last hymn. Older children are encouraged to stay and worship with their families.

The 11 a.m. service is televised over WAXN-TV, Channel 64 this morning and streamed live at www.firstpres-charlotte.org and on Facebook Live.

Thomas is the son of Jacqueline and Tommy Parolin.

The Elder assisting with the baptism is Jane Ives.

The guest Elder is Jeff McNeill.

Part of our offering today goes to the Ten-Cents-a-Meal program, a hunger relief and at-risk youth ministry of the Presbytery of Charlotte.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination

Anthem

Richard Smallwood

Lord, I will lift mine eyes to the hills, knowing my help is coming from you. Your peace you give me in time of storm. You are the source of my strength. You are the strength of my life; I lift my hands in total praise to you. Amen.

Scripture

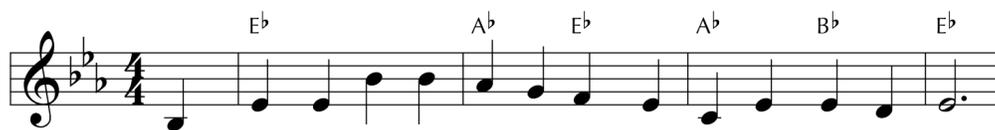

Luke 8:26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me"—for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

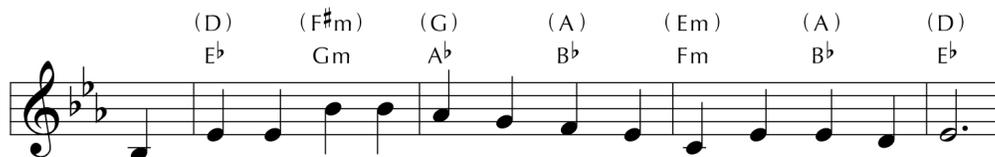

Sermon

"We've Been Made Well: Being Seen"

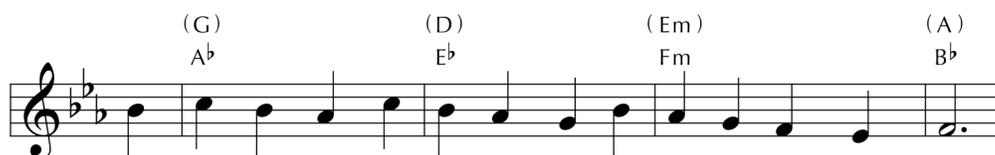

The Reverend Pen Peery

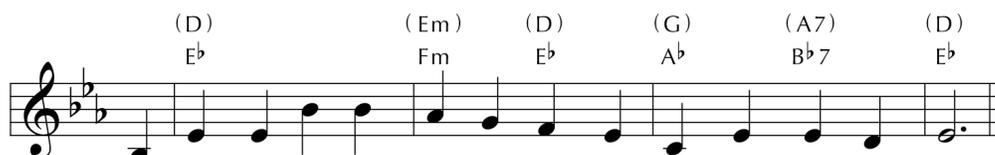

1 O God, you are my God a-lone, whom ea-ger-ly I seek,
 2 Your faith-ful love sur-pass-es life, e-vok-ing all my praise.
 3 Through-out the night I lie in bed and call you, Lord, to mind;

though long-ing fills my soul with thirst and leaves my bod-y weak.
 Through ev-ery day, to bless your name, my hands in joy I'll raise.
 in dark-est hours I med-i-tate how God, my strength, is kind.

Just as a dry and bar-ren land a-waits a fresh-ening shower,
 My deep-est needs you sat-is-fy as with a sump-tuous feast.
 Be-neath the shad-ow of your wing, I live and feel se-cure;

I long with-in your house to see your glo-ry and your power.
 So, on my lips and in my heart, your praise has nev-er ceased.
 and dai-ly as I fol-low close, your right hand keeps me sure.

Response

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

The Reverend Lorenzo Small, Sr.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
